TALK ABOUT "Tonics"

● Spring is traditionally the time for "tonics." But don't experiment. Go and have a talk with your Physician. After a careful study of your individual condition, he will prescribe something—perhaps one of the new vitamin concentrates—to supply any nutritional deficiency. And—be sure to bring his prescription here, where it will be filled from our fresh, potent stock.

CONVENTION TIME

With the pyrotechnics of war bursting dramatically on both sides of the globe, the political fireworks here at home has been temporarily eclipsed. But not for long. Next week the GOP convention—the first of the two pre-campaign extravaganzas—gets under way in Chicago.

From the present outlook both conventions should be short. Unless unforeseen opposition develops, both Governor Dewey and President Roosevelt will win the respective nominations hands down. The only contender the former racket-buster will have is Ohio's Governor Bricker. And as far as FDR is concerned, he has enough delegate votes to wrap up his fourth nomination right now, in spite of the Southern revolt.

With both presidential nominations virtually certain, the principal interest will center around vice-presidential candidates. California has a particular interest in this field because of the possible selection of Governor Earl Warren in spite of his efforts to avoid it. On the Democratic side, Henry Wallace is said to have the inside track for re-nomination due to his heavy labor support. However, House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Missouri's Senator Truman have also been prominently mentioned.

No other country on the globe would attempt to give such attention to politics during a war. But that's what makes America what it is.

THE JEEP: A MYSTERY

Few people in America today have not heard of or seen that versatile vehicle called the jeep. Ask any school boy what it is and you get a detailed description. Ask the average man if he would like to own one and you will get a spontaneous, "Sure!"

Yet, strangely enough, the jeep is a mystery—in fact, several mysteries. First, nobody seems to know who originated it. No less than four manufacturers claim its parentage. Second, the OPA wants to know how it should be classed: as a car, a truck, or a tractor. It can and does perform the services of all three. Third, where did its name come from?

While government agencies search for these answers, it is becoming evident that this potent puddle-jumper is destined for a wide and varied career in post-war days. Farmers, rural postmen, fire departments and John Q. Citizen himself all seem sure they can find many uses for it.

The virtually unlimited usefulness of the jeep hints at the vast field of expansion for all rubber-borne transportation after the war. The magnificent war performance of commercial motor carriers in handling one-fifth of the nation's freight with a capacity only one-twentieth that of the rails has created increased demands for this speedy and flexible type of transportation. Trucks are the main reason why this nation has averted a transportation breakdown such as occurred in the last war.

In the final analysis, the public itself isn't concerned about the origin or classification of the jeep or how it got its name. What most people want to know is: How soon can I get one, and how much will it cost?

THE ONE-TWO PUNCH

If we had been told before the invasion of Europe that news from that area would be crowded out of the headlines, at least temporarily, less than 10 days after the first landings, we would have said, "Preposterous!"

But it has happened.

The dramatic events that suddenly exploded on the other side of the world have taken the spotlight for the time. Our new sky superfortresses have rocked Japan with giant bundles of dynamite, and American troops have swarmed ashore on the Marianas islands only 1500 miles from Tokyo.

In the parlance of the boxing world this might be called the one-two punch. Our European invasion was a smash to the Axis chin, and our Pacific blow was a followup to the midsection.

It is reasonable to believe that our bold landings right in Tojo's front yard took the Japs by surprise. With all eyes on Europe, we imagine that the Japs, like most of us, expected the Pacific to be quiet for a while.

Secretary of War Stimson declared that no part of the Japanese homeland is now safe from the attack of our super skybirds. With a flying range that obviously must exceed 4,000 miles, these B-29's have introduced a new phase of warfare that is truly global in its scope.

It has been a long time since December 7, 1941. It may yet be a long time before the November 11 of World War II. But it is apparent that our two and a half years of steady toil along the comeback trail in the Pacific will now begin to pay off in real dividends.

Tojo, the handwriting is on the wall—and in the sky—and on the sea. We're coming!

NEWS FROM LOCAL OPA

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

Hearing panel of OPA Board No. 83-12-3, heard 17 cases, Tuesday, June 13. Penalties ranged from forfeiture of 2 "A" coupons for a speeding violation to forfeiture of a "C" book for failure to turn in supplemental gasoline when changing places of occupation. If you change jobs be sure you register change at OPA Board . . . Be sure you display the proper sticker on your windshield either "A," "B" or "C" (but only highest one). Your supplemental gasoline can be revoked if you don't comply. Speeding can cost you all of your gasoline.

Much has been said, but too little is known, of the process for filing suit for $50 when you have been charged over the ceiling prices. It's really quite simple and takes but little time. If you have been overcharged on a commodity and the overcharge for a single sale is not more than you may sue in the Small Claims Court for $50 under the Price Control Act.

More fruits and vegetables must be canned this year. The present point-holiday on canned vegetables is only temporary. Supplies of canned fruits and juices will continue low. Special emphasis should be given to the home canning of vitamin-C rich foods such as tomatoes . . . Remember the new hours at the board - 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. - open Tuesday to 8:30 p. m. - Saturday 10 to 12:30 p. m. . . . Truck operators apply at board in person for third quarter mileage ration.

Appoint Local Man As Flight Officer

The 20th Ferrying group, Ferrying division, Air Transport Command, Nashville, Tennessee, announced that John L. Stanghellini, Daly City, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Stanghellini, 622 Cayuga avenue, San Francisco, was appointed Flight Officer in the U. S. Army Air Forces, June 3, when he completed the Officers Candidate Unit course at the Nashville, Tennessee, base.

He was awarded Pilot's Wings at an early morning ceremony which took place before the entire military personnel of the 20th Ferrying group, Officers of the Air Forces, the Air Transport Command and the Ferrying division, and state and local dignitaries attended the ceremony.

As a Ferry Pilot, he will help maintain a steady flow of combat aircraft from American factories to fighting fronts. Ferry Pilots fly more than a hundred different types of military planes, in all climates and all weathers, to every corner of the earth.

"The Merry Widow" At SF Opera House

The New Opera Company of New York will bring the sensationally successful production of "The Merry Widow" to San Francisco for a two week engagement in Memorial Opera House opening, July 10.

San Francisco and Los Angeles will be the only cities outside of New York to see this magnificent presentation of the always popular Franz Lehar operetta with its new music version and new book. It comes on special engagement direct from a capacity year's stay on Broadway with the lavish original production and stellar cast practically intact.

Jan Kiepura, Polish grand opera tenor still remembered by film fans for his "Be Mine Tonight" heads the company as Prince Danilo with Melville Cooper as Popoff, the part which brought the distinguished English comedian to America.

A superb singing and gorgeously costumed chorus and brilliant George Ballanchine ballet are distinguished features of the presentation. Felix Brentano is the stage director.

Seat reservations may be had at the Opera Box Office, City of Paris.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Clifton Fadiman, editor and book critic, is now a member of the Editorial Board of the Book-of-the-Month Club. His appointment is the first addition to the Club's board, since the organization was launched eighteen years ago, with Dorothy Canfield, Christopher Morley, Henry Seidel Canby, Heywood Broun, who died in 1939, and the late William Allen White, as the five judges.

CLIFTON FADIMAN

As the new judge, Mr. Fadiman will help to select the book-of-the-month from among the approximately 300 books submitted by the leading American publishers each month. Says Harry Scherman, President of the Club: "Clifton Fadiman's major interest has always been a deep concern with books, and the ceaseless cross-fertilization that goes on betwen literature and life. His highly individual book-judgments, and his acute critical conscience, fit beautifully into our editorial picture."

The Book-of-the-Month Club is the pioneer book club in this country and the largest organization of its kind in the world. Since the inception in 1926, the Club has selected, in advance of publication, a total of 257 books, many of which have since become land marks in modern literature.

Among these were "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent Benét, "Kristin Lavransdatter" by Sigrid Undset, "All Quiet on the Western Front" by Erich Maria Remarque, "The Good Earth" by Pearl Buck, "Anthony Adverse" by Hervey Allen, Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With The Wind," "Forty Days of Musa Dagh" by Franz Werfel, and, more recently, "The Song of Bernadette" by the same author.

* * *

"Information Please" over which Mr. Fadiman presides as Master of Ceremonies, is popular with radio audiences not only for its sophisticated character, but also for the puns sometimes perpetrated by its participants. We were reminded of one in John E. Drewrey's "Post Biographies of Famous Journalists." When Guest Expert John Gunther correctly guessed the identity of the ruler of Persia, Fadiman asked, "Are you shah, Mr. Gunther?" Gunther's reply was, "Sultanly."

* * *

Also according to "Post Biographies," here are a few of the ways Clifton Fadiman worked his way through high school and college. He tutored a half wit; he read Shakespeare to a mad Wall Street plunger; he got ten dollars an afternoon on the golf links for trailing an earnest duffer around and telling him to keep his head down; he manage a country hotel; he lectured on Frenc symbolist poetry at five dollars an hou He ran errands for a butcher's shop; peddled magazine subscriptions in Weehawken; and he had a couple of amusement-park jobs. One of these was guiding women and children out of an imitation of the Cretan Minotaur's maze; the other was chasing boys off something called the Devil's Whirlpool.

Julia tells How to "Pep Up" Summer Appetites

THESE EARLY-SUMMER days — warm and busy—sometimes leave entire families with dull dinner appetites! But there are ways to change all that—easy ways. Oftentimes, what's needed is simply a different approach to a familiar food. For instance, try these ideas with

COLD MEATS

Roll a slice of bologna or boiled ham around a generous portion of potato salad or cole slaw.

Frizzle cold meats by frying them gently in a small amount of shortening.

Dice luncheon meat and toss it with a green salad or cole slaw—or mix it in with potato salad.

Put a mound of potato salad or macaroni on top of a peeled half-tomato, and cover with cold meat or strips of bacon.

And speaking of salads, there are dozens of ways to make them interesting and lively for warm-weather meals. Here are a few:

Tomatoes Yerba Buena! Scald ripe whole tomatoes (leaving the stems on if possible), and chill them. Peel when ready to use, and pile in deep bowl lined with lettuce or romaine leaves. Serve with your favorite salad dressing.

Cucumber slaw is cool! Wash and peel 3 medium-sized cucumbers, and shred them diagonally on a coarse shredder. Sprinkle with salt and lemon juice, and chill. Toss lightly with salad dressing.

Salad sandwich is a feminine favorite! Cover a 1-inch round of bread with lettuce, and then with tomato sliced 1 inch thick. Top with sea food or chicken salad, and garnish with radishes and olives. Serve with Thousand Island dressing.

Angels' potato Salad is pleasant to the eyes and delightful to the palate! Simply press potato salad in an angel-food cake pan, and turn out. Garnish with radish roses, and ice with mayonnaise.

Carrots Waldorf makes good use of apples, of course. Combine 6 cups each of finely sliced raw carrot strips and raw apple strips with 3 tbsps. top milk, ¼ tsp. salt, and ¾ cup salad dressing. Toss lightly to mix. Chill. Serve in crisp lettuce cups with tsp. salad dressing. (If walnut meats are available, chop finely and sprinkle as a crowning touch!)

★ ★ ★

But of course one of the best ways to enliven summer appetites is to make sure all the foods you serve are of the best quality! If fresh vegetables aren't available from your own garden, be sure the ones you buy are as fresh as can be! Use salad dressings you know will be satisfactory! Buy cold meats where meat quality is known to be good!

And may your family's appetites be hearty, these warm-weather days!

Ford Turns Out Liberator Bombers

More than 3,000 four-engined B-24 Liberator bombers have been built at the Willow Run Bomber plant, it was announced, recently, by the Ford Motor company. Of this total, 2,000 bombers were in completed, flyaway form and the remainder were knocked-down for shipment to final assembly plants elsewhere in compliance with the War Department program.

Production officials expect Willow Run, largest bomber plant in the world, to far exceed its quota this month. The present quota, in number of aircraft, was the peak Army experts had previously expected from Willow Run.

Local Ford dealer is National Auto company, 7360 Mission street.

Daly City Theatre Has New Manager

Art Kloth has taken over as manager of the Daly City theatre, Mission street near Flournoy. He was formerly manager of the Amazon and Granada theatres and has been in the entertainment business for many years.

Kloth explained that in addition to the best in movie entertainment, the local theatre strives to conduct a clean and quiet house where rowdyism is strictly taboo.
